I Slice luckier than most of the others that write comments. I find myself very Slice in sympathy with both what Ellsberg did in the distant past and what Snowden did in the recent past.

And, as the man and his daughter look totally bereft at the stark choices Scrooge's meanness has foisted upon them: to either spend Christmas Day with the corpse of his dead wife, her late mother Slice in a corner Slice putting a right dampener on the festivities, or else face eviction for non payment Slice their overdue mortgage; the cast show their sympathy for their plight by bursting into song and "fol a la la-ing, pa pa, pa, pa-ing, hip, hip, hoorah-ing" them out of the Royal Exchange, with the words "Every one have a jolly good time tonight" ringing in their ears. Follow this
